

ALLIES ADVANCE ON PICARDY FRONT

BRITISH AND FRENCH PENETRATE GERMAN LINES FROM 5 TO 6 MILES

Prussians and Bavarians Leave Many Guns Behind—Large Number of Prisoners Taken—Enemy Suffers Heavy Casualties—All Objectives Accomplished With Small Losses To Allies.

BULLETIN

PARIS, Aug. 9. 4:40 A. M.—The number of prisoners taken by the French and British in Picardy now exceeds 10,000, according to the latest news from the battle front. The allies also have taken an enormous booty in guns and material, says Marcel Hutin, in the Echo de Paris.

BULLETIN

LONDON, Aug. 8.—In aerial fighting Wednesday preceding artillery fire in Picardy, British aviators accounted for 25 German machines, fifteen of which were destroyed, according to the official statement issued tonight.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—The progress of the Franco-British offensive continues favorable. In some instances the advance has reached to a depth of more than six miles.

BULLETIN

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 8.—By the Associated Press.—The slopes of the valley of the Aisne have been carried and the allies have reached the plateau beyond. They are making further progress and overcoming every obstacle along the line everywhere.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Aug. 8.—By the Associated Press.—Fighting their way thru the Germans at dawn on a front of over 15 miles astride the river Somme, British and French troops this afternoon had reached points from five to six miles inside lines which this morning belonged to the enemy.

The Prussians and Bavarians fled before the advancing infantry and tanks leaving many of their guns behind them. Large numbers of prisoners have been taken both by the British and French and heavy casualties undoubtedly have been inflicted upon the enemy.

Thus far everything has been accomplished with excessively small losses to the allies.

Of one entire British corps, for instance, two hours after the attack began, only two officers and fifteen men of the ranks were reported as casualty. Artillery has followed up the storm troops closely and now is hurling shells down upon the enemy forces which taken by surprise and fiercely attacked must be in a more or less crippled condition. It is believed that reinforcements are on the way to help them. What tomorrow holds for the enemy cannot be forecast but the outlook is not a promising one under present conditions.

Moreuil and the country front adjoining Villers-Aux-Érables have been taken by the French, while the British have captured the Dodo and Hamel woods and Marcelcave after hard fighting and pushed a considerable distance beyond. Especially hard fighting was experienced and still is in progress on the left flank of the fighting front in the neighborhood of Morlancourt. The weather helped in the advance.

North of the attacked zone the barrage began at four o'clock this morning and lasted four minutes. Tanks then rolled forward and with them the infantry swarmed toward the enemy lines. These lines were reached and passed as a mist started to roll in. All along the line, except possibly northward on the left flank very little enemy shelling was experienced after the attack got well under way. Nearly all the country already fought over and that now in front of the allied forces is low and rolling, and especially adapted to open warfare. One new German division which had just arrived in the line before the attack was launched was told to expect local attacks. Prisoners taken from this division said they had heard nothing of a general attack being contemplated.

Where the tanks and the armored car batteries pressed far forward in the rolling country there were much agitation among the enemy.

A report came back that a British tank probably one of the fast little "whippets" had been seen chasing a frightened German general up the road. But the enemy general was not alone in the direction in which he was going. Observers reported considerable columns of enemy transports going eastward in a hurry during the middle of the day. Farther south the tanks likewise did excellent work. They also have been taken across the river Luce under the cover of night and the valuable work in assisting at the capture of Dodo wood and Hamel wood and the nearby high ground. Reports from the south say that things are going in splendid fashion there and that the French have been equally as successful as the British. Hastily organized counter-attacks have developed here and there along the line especially north of the Somme, but so far all are reported to have broken down under the fire of the allies. It may be taken for granted that further enemy counter-attacks will develop either organized from the forces now in front of the allied troops or from fresh forces that Crown Prince Rupprecht undoubtedly will try to hurry up from other sectors. Further reports of heavy fighting, may therefore be expected.

Field Marshal Haig Issues Statement.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Field Marshal Haig's statement concerning the new offensive by the British and French troops shows that the enemy line has been driven about seven miles and a half in the center at Plessier which lies south-east of Moreuil. It shows that goodly gains also have been made eastward over the front of fifteen miles between Plessier and Morlancourt.

The statement says that no estimate can be made concerning the prisoners, guns and material captured, but that several thousand prisoners and many guns have been taken.

The text of the statement follows:

"The operations commenced this morning on the Aisne front by the French first army under command of General Debantier and the British fourth army under Sir Henry Rawlinson, are proceeding successfully. The assembly of allied troops was completed under cover of night, unnoticed by the enemy.

"At the hour of assault, French, Canadian, Australian and English divisions, assisted by a large number of British tanks stormed the Germans on a front of over 20 miles from the Aisne river to Braches to the neighborhood of Morlancourt. The enemy was taken by surprise and at all points the allied troops have made rapid progress. At an early hour our first objectives had been reached on the whole of the front attacked. During the morning the advance of the allied infantry continued activity assisted by British cavalry, light tanks and motor machine gun batteries.

"The resistance of German divisions in the line were overcome at certain points after sharp fighting, and many prisoners and a number of guns were captured by our troops. The French troops attacking with great gallantry crossed the Aisne river and despite the enemy's opposition carried hostile defenses. North of the Somme the great part of our final objectives were gained before noon but in the neighborhood of Chipilly and south of Morlancourt parties of the enemy observed prolonged resistance.

"In both localities the fighting was heavy, but ultimately our troops broke down the opposition of the German infantry and gained their objectives.

"South of the Somme the gallantry of the allied infantry and the dash and vigor of their attack had gained during the afternoon the final objectives for the day on practically the whole front of the battle front.

"No accurate estimate can be given concerning the number of prisoners or guns, or the amount of material captured, but it is known that several thousand prisoners and many guns have fallen into our hands."

Enemy Transports Seen Scurrying Away.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Aug. 8.—On the horizon enemy motor transports have been visible scurrying away.

The 27th, 43rd and 108th divisions of Crown Prince Rupprecht's army have suffered heavily while the 117th division which only came into the line last night has been badly cut up.

The only determined enemy stand was made around Morlancourt, where there was fighting throughout the day. The enemy made several counter-attacks but without recovering any ground.

The French forces have also done wonderfully.

Attack Continues In Good Order.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—"The attack made this morning by our troops southeast of Amiens in conjunction with British troops, continues in good order," says the official communication by the war office this evening. "The details are given in the British communication."

"Aviation: During the month of July 184 enemy airplanes were downed. One hundred and fifty-four enemy airplanes were seen falling out of control inside the enemy lines of which number fifteen had been damaged by the fire of our aircraft guns."

"In addition our airplanes set on fire 49 enemy captive balloons."

"During the same month our bombing squadrons during the day time dropped 194 tons of explosives and in the night time 356 tons, thus making a total of 550 tons dropped on bridges in the Marne valley on enemy troops that had advanced south of the Aisne and on railroad stations in the region of Laon, Mirson and Rehel."

"Belgian communication: 'There has been moderate artillery activity. Our fire has caused explosions of munitions depots inside the enemy lines.'

Berlin Statement.

Admits Losses.

BERLIN, Aug. 8.—via London.—The English have forced their way into German positions between the Aisne and the Aves according to a statement issued this evening by the German war office.

The text of the communication follows: "In an attack by the English between the Aisne and the Aves, the enemy has forced his way into our positions."

FEDERAL CONTROL OF THE PACKING INDUSTRY URGED

Trade Commission Makes Recommendation to Wilson

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Investigation of the packing industry of the country by the federal trade commission culminated today in an announcement that the commission had recommended to President Wilson that the government commander and operate for the public benefit stock yards, cold storage plants, warehouses and refrigerator and cattle cars. Monopolistic control of the essential food supply not only of the United States and its army and navy, but also of the entire country was charged by the committee against the five great packing companies—Swift, Armour, Morris, Cudahy and Wilson. The last named company, the commissions report said, is controlled by three of the strongest banking groups in the United States—Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Guaranty Trust company and Chase National Bank.

Further close affiliation between the packing industry and financial interests was reported. The commission said that in the great financial centers the packers had representation on the directorate of large banks through members of the individual families, or thru their officers, directors, or confidential employees. The commission's report on the packing industry was the third made in its general investigation of food supplies ordered by President Wilson and congress last year. The report was made public thru the white house without further comment than that it had been presented July 5 and had not before been made public first to get full information.

In detailing how the packers are alleged to have gained control of the meat supplies of the United States and the allies the commission said:

"The Armour, Swift, Morris, and Wilson interests have entered into a combination with certain foreign corporations by which export shipments of beef, mutton and other meats from the principal South American meat producing countries are apportioned among the several companies on the basis of percentages. In conjunction with this conspiracy meetings are held for the purpose of securing the maintenance of the agreement and making such readjustment as from time to time may be desirable. The agreement restricts South American shipments to European countries and the United States. Since the meat supplies of North and South America constitute practically the only source from which the United States and her allies can satisfy their needs for their armies, navies and civil populations these two agreements constitute a conspiracy on the part of the Big Five in conjunction with certain foreign corporations to monopolize an essential of the food of the United States, England, France and Italy."

BULLETINS

LONDON, Aug. 8.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, with the crown-prince and the Princesses Eudoxia and Nadescha arrived unexpectedly Wednesday at Naueim, Germany, according to an exchange telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. King Ferdinand apparently intended to remain a long time at Naueim, where he is incognito as Count von Nurnay.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—News gathering is an indispensable industry, Secretary Baker said today, in discussing draft regulations, the a particular man's relations to that industry must depend, Mr. Baker added, on facts in his case and possibility of replacing him.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Aug. 8.

Lieutenant Horton killed Redwood City, Calif., was perhaps fatally injured in the fall of his airplane while flying six miles south of Kelly Field this afternoon. He was taken to the base hospital at Fort Sam Houston. His companion in the machine escaped with minor injuries.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The British mercantile tonnage at the outbreak of the war amounted to 15,500,000 tons gross, and the figure at the present time is 15,000,000 tons gross, Sir Leo G. Chiozza Money, parliamentary secretary to the ministry of shipping announced in the house of commons today.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

The historic battle ground between Amiens and Montdidier again is the scene of a mighty contest. This time the British and French are the aggressors, and under their fierce onslaughts in the first day's battle they have penetrated deeply into the German positions over a front of more than twenty miles, reaching from the region of Braches to the neighborhood of Morlancourt.

Following short but intensive artillery preparation and aided by misty weather, the allied attack took the Germans completely by surprise, and they fled almost everywhere, pell mell before the tanks, motor machine gun batteries, cavalry and infantry sent against them. All the objectives set for the Australians, Canadians, Englishmen and Frenchmen were attained in remarkably quick time and at last accounts Thursday night the allied forces were still making progress. However, the enemy turned to give battle he was decisively defeated.

Thousands of Germans were made prisoner. Large numbers of guns were captured, great quantities of war materials were captured and a score or more of villages and hamlets were re-occupied. In addition, heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy. At its deepest point, the penetration of the German line was about seven and a half miles, eastward from Villers-Bretonneux to Farmerville, while from two to five miles were gained all along the front from northwest of Montdidier to the region around Morlancourt.

The fighting extended north of Morlancourt to the Albert sector, but no official details concerning it have been received. The advance of the allies in the center places them well astride the railroad leading from Villers-Bretonneux to the important junction at Chaulnes, where radiate northeastward toward Peronne and southward thru Roye to Compiègne.

The railway running northward to Bray was crossed when the allies took Farmerville.

Well out on the plains and pressing forward, seemingly with great rapidity, the present offensive of the French and British gives promise of seriously menacing the entire German front from near the sea to Rheims. If the drive should proceed eastward to any great depth it cannot but affect the armies of the German crown prince, now fighting between the Aisne and the Neuse and possible make impracticable a stand by them even north of the Aisne along the Chemin des Dames.

On the Vesle front little fighting occurred Thursday except in the process of line straightening operations on the north bank, where, under an almost incessant rain of enemy shells both the American and French troops improved their stands. The German guns not alone are playing upon the allied force, but also are hammering away at bridges across the stream over which men constantly are making their way to the northern bank of the stream to reinforce their comrades already there.

What effect the present battle southeast of Amiens is to have on the Vesle-Aisne front remains to be seen.

Submarine Sinks Small Unarmed American Ship

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Within less than 24-hours after the Diamond Shoal Lightship off Cape Hatteras, North Carolina, had been destroyed by shell fire, the small American unarmed steamer Merak was shelled, torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine near the North Carolina coast Tuesday afternoon.

Announcement of the destruction of the ship, the third of its kind in that vicinity since last Sunday—was made today by the navy department. The Merak's crew of 43 men got away in small boats and were landed safely, 23 at Norfolk and the remainder at Elizabeth City, N. C. Complete details of the sinking of the ship were lacking tonight, but it was assumed that as in other cases the submarine opened fire without first giving the crew time to lower small boats.

FATALLY INJURED.

Rantoul, Ill., Aug. 8.—Mrs. Mabel Little was fatally injured last night when an automobile which she was driving was struck by an Illinois Central train. She was taken aboard the train to a hospital at Champaign where she died shortly afterward. Edith Little, her daughter, who was with her suffered a broken arm and other injuries but will recover.

REPORT INDICATES BUMPER CROPS OF ALL FOOD STUFFS

Despite Adverse Conditions Existing During July

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Bumper crops of almost every foodstuff grown on the farm was indicated again today in the department of agriculture's monthly crop report despite a falling off in the prospective production in practically all crops during July due to adverse conditions, principally hot and dry weather.

In round figures the loss to the farmers of this prospective production is roughly estimated at almost three quarters of a billion dollars—more than $450,000,000 in the principal grain and food crops and $250,000,000 in cotton.

Practically every crop is growing on larger acreage this year than that planted last year indicating that the farmers have been making strenuous efforts to meet the heavy needs of the allies and the increasing demands at home for foodstuffs. Corn, the country's greatest crop, was the heaviest sufferer from the dry and hot weather of July, losing 171,000,000 bushels in prospective production since the first production forecast was made from June conditions. The monetary loss to corn growers is about $275,000,000. From most every part of the country there came reports that corn this year is from 2 to 3 weeks ahead of its average condition indicating that practically all of the crop will mature before the dates of the first frost. That condition should insure the minimum injury from frost damage.

Wheat, the harvesting of which is nearing completion suffered a loss of 13,000,000 bushels, yet the crop will be much larger than last year's and also bigger than the average of the five years before.

Drought and heat made inroads on potatoes causing a loss of 15,000,000 in the prospective crop, and sweet potatoes production loss was estimated at half that quantity. A notable exception in the forecasts was that of tobacco which showed an increase of 41,000,000 pounds in the prospective crop over the forecast made in July.

Fire Damage at Cartridge Plant Near $100,000

(By the Associated Press)

ALTON, Ill., Aug. 8.—Fire this afternoon destroyed six small buildings and two powder magazines at the Western Cartridge company's West Alton works with damage estimated at $100,000. No one was injured and the main body of the plant which is working on government contracts was not disturbed. The fire is said to have started when a shell became jammed in a loading machine and exploded and set fire to the structure. Fifteen girls in the room escaped. Two British officers, Majors Norton and Cheverton and two representatives of the Italian government, Jules Arturo and S. Giastino were at the scene and worked with the employees to check the flames.

The trench mortar department next to the loading department was damaged and a warehouse, the paper box store house and two stables were burned. The two magazines destroyed did not contain large quantities of powder.

JOHN R. MARTIN JOINS SIGNAL CORPS.

John R. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Martin, went to Springfield yesterday and enlisted in the signal corps radio department of the United States service. He will leave Saturday for Jefferson Barracks. On August 15 he will report for duty at Fort Leavenworth. Young Martin is not quite twenty-one years of age. However, he has had the war fever for some time and it finally culminated in his enlistment. His many friends will wish him success in his work and a safe return from "over there."

WRITES FROM FRANCE

Mrs. James A. Scott, of North Fayette street has received a letter from her nephew Owen E. Franks, who is with the American Expeditionary Forces in France. Mr. Franks is a sergeant with the ammunition train section of the army. He writes that he likes army life fine and thinks France is a fine country, but says that the United States is the best country to live in.

Issues Call for 130,207 Selects to Go This Month

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Calls for 130,207 draft registrants qualified for general military service to join the colors before the end of August, were issued tonight by the provost marshal general.

One hundred thousand white registrants from 43 states are ordered entrained between August 26 and August 30. Twenty one states and the District of Columbia are directed to furnish 30,207 negro registrants to entrain August 22-24.

These orders bring the number of men called out in August to about 300,000, the number contemplated in the present military program.

Included in the states from which the white men now called will come, and the camps to which each quota is assigned are:

Illinois, 4,000, Camp Wadsworth, S. C.
Iowa, 500, Camp Funston, Kans.
Indiana, 1,500, Camp Sherman, Ohio.
Missouri, 2,000, Camp Funston, Kans.

No Voluntary Enlistments in Army or Navy

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Voluntary enlistments in army and navy were suspended completely today to prevent disruption of industry pending disposition of the bill proposing to extend draft ages to include all men between 18 and 45 years. Orders were issued by Secretaries Baker and Daniels directing that no voluntary enlistments be accepted after today until further orders.

The orders also exclude civilians from appointment to officers' training camps until further notice.

The order was issued after a conference between Secretary Baker and Secretary Daniels and were made public after President Wilson had visited the offices of both secretaries late in the day. It is not known whether his visit had to do with the enlistment situation but just before he conferred with the cabinet officers there was no indication that a step of such drastic nature was anticipated. It was explained that the view of the government is that many of the older men are indispensable in their present occupations but the natural result of the debate on the draft age question is certain to lead to a rush to the recruiting offices. It is regarded as essential that men greatly needed at home should be prevented from rushing into the army under a mistaken idea that they are certain to be drafted anyhow and prefer to join the service voluntarily.

It was quite evident that plans for applying the new draft limitations to the older men include a very careful classification of each individual to determine his position at home and probably a far more liberal construction of industrial exemption rules than has heretofore been the case.

Secretary Daniels, in issuing an order to the chief of navigation and the commandant of the marine corps to refuse acceptance of enlistments made this explanation:

"The large increase in enlistments in the navy and marine corps has made it possible to suspend further enlistment until the pending legislation affecting the draft for the army is disposed of. When it is resumed it will be in full co-operation with the war department under arrangements which will secure all the men needed for both services."

YANKS BETTER THEIR POSITIONS NORTH OF VESLE

Americans Struggle Forward Under Incessant Shell Fire

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Plainly General Petain has no intention of allowing the enemy to recover from the blows dealt him on the Soissons-Rheims front. The advance continues in spite of all the obstacles of weather and muddy roads.

Without waiting to drive all the Germans from the southern side across the Vesle, General Petain already has pushed a sufficiently substantial force across the river to hold the bridgeheads on the right bank. It will be interesting to see what view the enemy takes of the threats against his direct line of retreat since it will be an indication of the strength he has to oppose him.

In the Americans, who showed their accustomed dash in the push across the Vesle, General Petain has the very instrument for such an adventure as the testing of the German strength.

One prisoner describing how the Americans advanced, firing and ignoring galling German machine gun fire explained:

"But the Americans are madmen. We did not dare surrender."

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE VESLE.

Aug. 8.—By the Associated Press.—Under almost incessant shell fire the Americans struggled forward today to slightly better positions north of the Vesle. French divisions to the east and to the west did their part in straightening the line. This day was not marked by organized attacks anywhere along the front but was punctuated by sharp minor engagements in which the American gunners successfully covered the operations of the infantry and the engineers. Along the entire front there was evident a determination to stabilize the lines. Whether the battle that began July 18 has virtually ended or whether the Germans will withdraw beyond the Aisne are unanswered questions. To the Americans already north of the river there was added considerable strength during the night and early morning. The line tonight is well fixed along the Rouen-Rheims road from near Bazoches, which still is in the hands of the Germans well east of Fismes. The Americans still hold Fismes but the village of North Fismes proved difficult and at mid-day was subjected to a terrific shelling by the American artillery with the intention of making it untenable. With that small point once clear, the line would run uninterruptedly toward the east.

The Germans have had strong machine gun positions in Fismes and to the north and east. It was the opposition offered by them that resulted in the American determination not to attempt occupation by the infantry but to destroy the enemy with artillery.

On the hills beyond the line at almost every available point the German light artillery have been placed while the heavy guns are located beyond the Aisne and guns of medium caliber are northwest of Perbles commanding the region beyond Bochezes.

Men enter to the age of forty-five will enter the army as enthusiastically as the kids.

Americans, when they take a position, know only one movement—forward.

The president is said to favor a tax of 50 per cent on the net earnings of all corporations furnishing war materials. It might do on rain coats.

American troops are to be sent to Siberia, where the situation looks more encouraging every day.

There has been some damage to the corn crop in this vicinity, but with more temperate weather and rain crops may recuperate.

Hindenburg's strategy has been a failure, so far, but it is wise to be not over-confident.

The language used by the Kaiser in talking to the Crown Prince might not look well in print.

The allies have accomplished a great deal in the past few weeks, but no doubt at great cost.

Edward L. Merritt, of Springfield, has withdrawn from the race for member of the general assembly in the forty-fifth district. His statement of withdrawal, filed in the office of Secretary Emmerson leaves only two democrats in the race, Clarence A. Jones, of Springfield, and Mayor Henry J. Rodgers of Jacksonville. Mr. Merritt has been appointed clerk of the Federal court at Springfield.

Austrian air men have raided a field of Italian prisoners. Prisoners of war have been entitled to decent and safe treatment, but the Austrians are emulating the example of the Kaiser in brutality and inhuman warfare.

For a man who has been earning the praise and love of the people, William Howard Taft carries a pretty strong "punch," which he is not afraid to use when occasion demands. Mr. Taft pays his respects to the fellows who hide their German sympathies under cover of a dislike for England in this style: "If any man, be he pro-German, Irishman or anything else, questions the honesty and motives of England in her associations with the United States in this war, he is a liar and a traitor."

SISTERS OF SOLDIERS.
Here's your chance, sisters of soldiers, to get a free ride to France, a husband and a free ride back again. Or at least if you do go to France and marry an American, you will have to take a free ride home, and stay there. So says Authority.

Which means the ban against sisters of men in overseas service going to France for work with the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., or bodies doing war work, has been lifted by Chief of Staff General March. These relief associations have been unable to get the number of women they need on account of the War Department's ruling that near relatives of men in the army would not be given passports. So the ruling has been modified and sisters are now to be permitted to go.

But the government has placed six conditions upon the young women who go overseas under this special dispensation. Their prompt and automatic return home by the organization which sent them, if they get married, is the sixth. The other five are: They must be duly accredited members of an organization which sends them; they must be sent to France as workers, not as relatives; they must make no effort to visit relatives in France, whether sick or well; they must be particularly qualified for the positions they are to fill.

BE ADVISED, YOUNG MAN.
It was, perhaps, to have been expected that patriotic American youths of college age would take fright at the proposed army measure. It is impossible for the government of any department to put into the hands of every individual the information of most interest and importance to him, says the Decatur Herald.

Boys of 23 who had not read the war department's official statement as to its policy regarding men of draft age in college, naturally thought that by remaining in the class of college they were jeopardizing their chances for military promotion, when they were called to the colors.

They do nothing of the sort. By joining a college training unit they virtually enlist in a branch of the United States army and receive much the same training as do the men who go off to camps. When their services are needed, they will have had the advantages of this instruction and will be able to progress more rapidly.

It cannot be too strongly emphasized that this government desires and must have an educated soldiery. It wishes men to remain in college just as long as is possible, and then from penalizing them for remaining, it is putting in their way every advantage. The advice of General Wood may be recalled:

"Boys should remember that they are now serving in the best possible way by preparing themselves to serve more efficiently when the time comes. It is a great mistake for partly educated young men to rush to the colors now. We don't need them. It is very important they should finish their education."

If you plan to go to college this fall, young man, go. If you and your fellows at once rush into the army, where will be obtained the trained and educated experts upon whom your government must rely in seeing this thing through?

WAR FINANCES.
Pessimistic Americans who view with alarm our increasing national obligations may derive a great deal of comfort from a comparison of the financial condition of the United States contrasted with that of Germany.

The total resources of the United States are estimated at about 250 billion dollars; our annual earnings are estimated at about fifty billions. Our national debt, including the Third Liberty Loan, may be put around 12 billions, states the Springfield Journal.

Before the war our government was spending about one billion a year. When the war is ended, interest charges, less the interest collected from our loans to our allies, government insurance expenses, and other necessary expenditures growing out of the war may conservatively be estimated at something like one billion. We are confronted, therefore, when peace comes, with raising only a couple of billions a year revenue, a slight task for a nation of such tremendous wealth, capacity and resources.

The resources of Germany before the war were estimated to be eighty billion dollars. The annual expenditures then of the imperial government were about $800,000,000. Her debt now is thirty billions and her resources and man power have been severely impaired. After the war she is confronted with additional expenditures growing out of the war totaling four billions.

The interest of her war debt, even if it did grow no larger, will be about $1,500,000,000. Although she is niggardly in her pensions to private soldiers and their families, a billion a year would hardly suffice to pay even small pensions to her injured and the families of her soldiers who have been killed. Her war debt must be paid some time and a sinking fund of 5 per cent would add one and a half billion to her annual taxation. Here is a total increase of four billions, all due to the war.

Of course both the United States, and Germany may greatly increase their debts, but the increases will not change the relative situations.

The German government has drained the German people of their gold, even their jewels and heirlooms, and yet the Imperial Bank of Germany has but little over $500,000,000 of gold in its vaults. The United States has made up special effort to obtain gold, has made no call upon the people for the precious metal, and yet today has in its treasury vaults practically $2,500,000,000 of gold coin and bullion.

RIPPLING RHYMS

By Walt Mason

Nuts.

I used to hold that I was sane, there were no weevils in my brain; no bats or bugs were wont to chase inside my dome, in endless race. But now, unfortunately, I dwell, and gibber in my padded cell. I tried to read and understand affairs in Russia's darkened land. I read dispatches branded true; the more I read the less I knew. I heard some gifted speakers tell of what in Petrograd befel, of anarchy 'neath Russia's flag, and felt my brain begin to sag. My aunt, in desperation, cried, "For heaven's sake, let Russia slide. You never will get over there. I answered, 'I have never yet side stepped a guessing

RETURN FROM CAMP GRANT
Several of the young men who left with the colored troops Monday for Rockford have returned to Jacksonville as they did not pass the physical examination at the camp. The list includes Quinn Johnson, Clarence Nasby, Douglas Norton, Mahatha Stewart, Lindwood Fountain, Eugene Trumbo, Emmett Wright, McKinley Wright and Deloss Porter. These men, it is understood, will later be assigned to limited service duty.

ARTHUR WOOD ENLISTS
Friends of Arthur L. Wood will be interested in knowing that he recently enlisted in the army service at Indio, Cal. A message to this effect was received yesterday by his mother, Mrs. Iven Wood. Mr. Wood's wife is known to many Jacksonville people as Miss Lois Pierson.

WIDOW PREFERRED TO MEET DEATH AT HOME

"For many years I suffered from stomach trouble. All the doctors tried helped me but little. All said I would have to go to hospital and be operated on for gall stones or I would not live much longer. I told them I preferred to meet death at home. One day I picked up an advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and since taking a course of it more than a year ago have not had a single pain in my stomach, have good appetite and can eat anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Coover & Shreve East Side Drug Store and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

WOMAN SAVED MUCH SUFFERING

By Taking Friend's Advice
and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

West Plains, Mo.—"I was all run down in health, had indigestion and terrible cramps every month so I was unable to do anything. I had tried every doctor in West Plains, also every remedy I could think of, without relief. One day when I was suffering greatly a friend was at my house and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I did, and thru it, I found relief from my suffering and I really believe it saved my life. It does not seem as tho I can say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for the health it has brought me."—Miss Cora Lee Hall, West Plains, Mo.

Perhaps it may seem an extravagant statement to say that this great remedy saved a life; but women like Mrs. Hall, to whom it has brought health, appreciate the danger and suffering they have escaped too well to doubt it! All who suffer should try it. Why risk life and health without it? For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

DR. SPOONTS TELLS OF THE TRIP TO ROCKFORD

As is well known, Dr. W. E. Spoonstons was enthusiastically invited to go along with the colored boys to Camp Grant at Rockford, Monday morning and went as requested and comes home quite enthusiastic over the trip and says if the boys with whom he went are a sample of the colored people of Jacksonville then they have reason to feel proud. Of course they were jolly and full of fun which was certainly all right and naturally did lots of singing. Several times they sang, "Nearer My God to Thee," especially when the train stopped and while they were waiting at Bloomington they had an impromptu concert on the station platform attracting a large audience.

Not an oath did the doctor hear on the trip nor was there any intoxicating liquor to be seen. Some sermons were delivered and a number of camp meeting songs sung, some of them suggested by Dr. Spoonstons. He was with the boys till their arrival and had formed such a friendship for them it was actually hard to leave them.

On the way there was one little untoward incident for which the boys were in no way responsible. At Joliet a colored man, somewhat the worse for drink, boarded the train and grossly insulted Brother Spoonstons who concluded that called for turning the other cheek but for illustrating the injunction not to give that which is holy to dogs or cast pearls before swine and when the preacher was through with the fellow the latter decided a man of the gospel knew how to use his fists as well as his tongue. The boys told Dr. Spoonstons rest on his laurels and they would see that the fellow behaved the rest of the way to Chicago which they did and then he was turned over to the police.

The boys arrived in camp at 7:30 p. m. and Dr. Spoonstons marched with them to their quarters and then sought the Y. M. C. A. for the night. There are 14,000 colored troops in Camp Grant and it was acknowledged that a fine looking body of new recruits had not been seen there. The doctor tried hard to locate the boys next morning but was unable to do so.

He says one of the finest sights he ever witnessed was 4,000 colored troops fully equipped and drawn up for inspection before being sent over sea. The commissioned officers were white and all the rest were colored. There are two colored Y. M. C. A. huts and one of them is in charge of Rev. W. E. Collins of this city. Dr. Spoonstons also saw Mr. Pontius while there.

PROMINENT RESIDENT OF LITERBERRY DEAD

George T. Litter Passed Away Suddenly Thursday Evening—Born in Kentucky—Had Lived in Litterberry and Vicinity Since He Was Four Years of Age.

Litterberry, August 8.—(Special to the Journal)—George T. Litter, pioneer resident of this village died suddenly at his home this evening about 9 o'clock.

Mr. Litter who keeps a general store complained of not feeling well earlier in the day and left the store and went home about 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

He ate a hearty supper and did not return to the store. The evening paper was brought to him and he sat down in a chair in the front yard to read. About 9 o'clock Mrs. Litter called him but received no answer. She went to the chair in which he was sitting and found that life was extinct.

Born in Kentucky.
George T. Litter was the son of John and Margaret Litter and was born in Bourbon county, Kentucky October 19, 1839. When he was four years of age his parents moved to Illinois settling one mile north of the present town of Litterberry, which received its name from Mr. Litter's father.

He was united in marriage September 2, 1885 to Miss Elizabeth Coulson. She survives together with three children, Mrs. Margaret Butler, Vandalia, Mo., Mrs. Maude Martin, Litterberry and Miss Georgia Litter at home.

Early in life Mr. Litter learned the trade of carpenter and during his early life he followed the occupation of carpenter contractor. Thirty eight years ago he entered the general mercantile business in Litterberry which he had followed with great success until the time of his death.

Member of Christian Church.
For twenty five years Mr. Litter was a member of the Christian church. He took an active part in the work of the church and was ready to aid in any forward movement.

In the community in which his life was spent Mr. Litter was known as "Uncle Tom." This title was given him because of his charitable disposition. No one who went to him for aid was ever sent away. He aided all alike and many were his benefactors thru the years.

Because of the fact that he did not have a physician before his death, Coroner Rose was notified and will hold an inquest today.

At this time no arrangements for the funeral have been made.

GEORGE JAMES MEETS DEATH IN FRANCE

Letter From Comrades Brings First News of Soldier's Death—Detailed Facts Not Given.

A letter received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Levin S. James, of West College street, brought the first information of the death of their son, George James, overseas. No government report seen here had carried the name of the young man, either among the killed or injured, or made any reference to his death from disease. The letter is from the company associates of the deceased and its authenticity cannot be doubted. However, the exact circumstances of the young man's death are not given. It is stated that he was not killed in action, but nothing is said with reference to his illness.

George James was born May 20, 1890, and attended the public schools of this city. He enlisted as a mechanic in Springfield in August, 1917, just one year ago, and was in training at Houston, Texas. Some months since he went to the front with the troops. He is survived by his parents, one sister and one brother.

The deceased was a member of Centenary church and lived in exemplary way. The family will have the deep sympathy of their friends in this time of bereavement, which is the harder because no further facts are at present available.

The Message of Sympathy.
The letter announcing the death of this soldier is in language as follows:

Somewhere in France, July 18, 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. James:

Dear Friends:—As daily companions of your son, George, we wish to offer you our heartfelt sympathy and to express to you our regret at his untimely death. He did not die on the field of battle, he was as true and brave a soldier as any of us. His unflinching cheerfulness and willingness to help at all times gave him a place in our hearts which no one else can fill. Both enlisted men and officers were very fond of "Jimmy," as we called him, and all will miss him.

We were present at his interment and said out last good-byes there as taps were blown by our bugler over his grave. He lies in a corner of a beautiful United States military cemetery on the top of a mountain out under the stars—the same stars which look down upon you. And so he is not far away, after all.

Of course, mere words of sympathy cannot soothe the ache in your hearts, but we felt that it would help to console you to know that we held your son in such high esteem and that he was a man of whom his parents could be proud.

We all join in sympathy with you.

Sincerely,
The Boys of Headquarters,
Co. 124th F. A., A. E. F.,
Robert F. Jones.

W. E. BEDINGFIELD VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Sustained Severe Bruises When Team of Mules Became Frightened and Ran Away on Ogle Farm Wednesday—Other News Notes From Grace Chapel Neighborhood.

What might have been a serious accident happened on the farm of O. Ogle, in Grace Chapel neighborhood, Wednesday. While threshing was in progress there a team of mules became frightened and ran away. Paul Ogle and W. E. Bedingfield were in the wagon drawn by the mules and Bedingfield was thrown violently to the ground, sustaining a number of painful bruises. It is fortunate that no more serious injuries resulted.

Miss Alma Ogle spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Susan M. Smith. During the day the young women prepared a box of good things to send to Mrs. Smith's son, Oscar, now at Camp Taylor.

Miss Myrtle Sheppard, of Jacksonville, is spending a few days at the home of Harry Ogle here. The attendance at the recent dedication of the Grace Chapel service flag was small on account of the intense heat. The program was in charge of Miss Alma Ogle, Miss Benson, of Jacksonville, is a guest of the Misses Ogle this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ogle have recently received a letter from each of their sons, Lloyd Ogle, stationed in New York, and Russell Ogle, at an Indiana Camp.

AT THE BOYS' CAMP.

Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp, Mercedos, Ill., Aug. 8, 1918.

Before the boys were out of bed Thursday an automobile came spinning down the road carrying three passengers. It was driven by W. J. Brady and with him were Fred Darr and C. W. Taylor. They were in good spirits after their morning drive, and had planned for a big day. Breakfast was served at the usual time and our guests certainly enjoyed it. After breakfast the boys went to the town after supplies. Round table was next on the program. After round table the guests and the boys were loaded into our old scow and we were off in a bunch to watch the Government men make another haul of fish. All came back with a nice string of fish. Every one was soon busy cleaning fish and we certainly had a fine dinner. A three gallon freezer of cream was provided by our guests and of course the crowd did justice to it. The afternoon was very pleasant and all were at fish hatcheries watching the Government men load the fish into tanks to be shipped to the State Fair.

At four o'clock we were invited to take a boat ride up the bay thru the courtyard of one of the neighbors, but a shower came up and we had to give up the trip.

Our old friend "Daddy" Hale, planned a surprise for the crowd in a neat way. He invited us to his home in Mercedos and upon our arrival we found an abundance of cold watermelons and cantaloupe and the crowd did justice to them. The fellows all left with full stomachs and smiles on their faces.

Returning to camp the visitors started to get ready for the trip home and left about seven o'clock.

Harry Walker who has been with the boys returned with Mr. Brady to be on duty at the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Brady being out of the city. Mr. Darr and Mr. Recker are both going to stay at camp the remainder of the time.

Ice cream social on lawn of Central Christian church, 8 o'clock, tonight.

FORMER RESIDENT IN MEDICAL RESERVE

The Chicago Tribune in a list of men awarded commissions in medical reserve corps mentions Ezra Hurwitz of 2514 Fullerton avenue, Chicago, who has been commissioned a first lieutenant. Dr. Hurwitz graduated from the 8th grade in this city and subsequently from the high school. Only a short time after his graduation he removed with his parents to Chicago and entered upon a medical course, subsequently graduating with honor. His brother, Sam R. Hurwitz, is with the heavy tank corps at Camp Colt and another brother, Emanuel Hurwitz, is in the enlisted medical reserve corps.

WILL URGE STUDENTS TO CONTINUE WORK.

A meeting of college and high school men will be held in Chicago next Tuesday for the purpose of organizing a special campaign throughout the state to emphasize the need of high school and college students continuing their class work. A patriotic appeal will be made with the plea that students should keep on in their work and enlist in the students' army training corps.

NEW PRESIDENT CHOSEN FOR KNOX.

Prof. James Lukens McCaughy, of Dartmouth college, has been elected president of Knox college, succeeding Dr. Thomas McClellan. The trustees of Knox college have been nearly a year making their selection and feel that they have chosen a man who will measure up fully to the needs of the institution. The work of a college president these days is of wider scope and greater importance than ever before.

Miss Effie Epler expects to leave today to join her brother, Judge Carl Epler, of Quincy, for a tour of the northern lake region. They will visit Crystal Lake and a number of other points.

Miss Helen Turner, of North Prairie street, has returned home after spending a week at Lake Matanza with Miss Frances Griswold.

MISS MILBURN IS WARTIME BRIDE

Married at Springfield Yesterday to Harold J. Wright—Both Were Members of Same Class in High School.

Harold J. Wright of 916 South Clay avenue and Miss Katherine Milburn of 914 South Main street were married in Springfield Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. J. J. Dugan. They drove to Springfield in a car and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chatham.

Mrs. Wright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Milburn of 914 South Main street. She attended the local high school graduating in 1915, after which she attended business college until she took her present position with the Farrell Bank.

Mr. Wright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright of 916 South Clay avenue. He is at present in the service being stationed at Camp Dix. He came home some time ago for a short furlough. He was formerly employed at the White Pig Meat Market on West State street before he enlisted in the army. Mr. Wright is also a graduate of the high school with the same class as his bride. He will return to his duties at Camp Dix shortly and Mrs. Wright will continue with her duties at the bank.

MISS GORDON WEDS JUDGE AGEE OF OGDEN

Former Resident Here Leaves Teaching Work in Houston to Live in Western Home.

Miss Clara Louise Gordon, formerly of Jacksonville, was married to District Judge A. W. Agee of Ogden, Utah, on July 30th. Judge Agee married a sister of his present wife and she died several years ago. Mrs. Agee is a sister of Mrs. Virginia Vasey, Mrs. Jesse Johnson and Mrs. Margaret Heaton of this city, and the daughter of the late John H. Gordon.

Judge Agee is a prominent fruit grower and judge at Ogden and was formerly lieutenant governor of Nebraska. For a number of years Mrs. Agee has been engaged in teaching the deaf in the western states, and lately has been in Houston, Texas. The following clipping was taken from the Houston Chronicle, which tells of her work there.

"The worker of miracles among the deaf children in the city schools, Miss Clara Louise Gordon, will leave Houston, tomorrow for her home in Ogden, Utah, and when schools open in the autumn another teacher will preside over the deaf school at the Rock building."

For Miss Gordon, who resigned her position at the close of school, goes north to become on Monday next the bride of Judge A. W. Agee, a prominent fruit raiser of the Salt Lake Valley and district judge of Ogden. They will make their home in Ogden.

"Miss Gordon is the first and only teacher in Houston who has ever guided the destinies of deaf children in scholastic ways. Under her charge, by a carefully worked out system, children who do not hear and therefore have not known how to reproduce sound, were taught to talk. Their education was carried thru several grades, all of which Miss Gordon taught.

"Miss Gordon will be missed by a wide circle of friends, both in Houston and in Texas. Several of her pupils have come from other points to be under her care. Her successor has not yet been appointed, but will be before the opening of the fall term."

THE DANO SHOWS.

The Dano shows at the Cannon lot on North Main street, are attracting large crowds nightly this week. The management has collected a considerable number of worthy attractions of the street fair type and the interest of the many who attend is apparent.

Patrons are finding the shows above the average and the week will be recorded as a prosperous one for the management.

WINCHESTER

Winchester, August 8.—Miss Letha Riggs left Thursday for Forsythe, Mont., where she expects to teach music in one of the schools this winter.

The following attended the funeral of William Tankersley, held at White Hall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Watt and son; Edgar Gibbs and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gibbs; Mrs. R. H. Coultas; Mrs. Mary Gibbs; Mrs. Frank Mason.

A number from here attended the Red Cross picnic given at the grove near Oxville Thursday.

Misses Nellie Lashmet, Lillian Sibert, Catherine Ryan, Rhea Richardson and Fritz Haskell were entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Young near Glasgow.

Wesley Taylor of Virden is visiting relatives here.

P. D. Smith and family and Miss Ida Sibert and Charles Jefferson enjoyed Thursday down at Little Blue.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bump is very ill at present.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a chicken fry on the church lawn next Thursday, August 15.

A fine rain fell at Winchester about 6 o'clock Thursday. It was heavy enough to benefit gardens and corn and to lay the dust on the country roads.

Social Events

Antioch Aid Society Met.

Mrs. L. B. Trotter entertained the Antioch Aid Society Thursday afternoon at her home east of the city. In absence of the president and vice president, Mrs. Trotter presided at the meeting. Following the business session of the society, the hostess assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Marsh Davis, Misses Margaret and Louise Trotter served an elegant three course lunch. The next meeting of the society will be held with Mrs. Clifton Corrington.

MISS JOHNSON ON WAY FOR SERVICE ABROAD

Miss Gunhild Johnson, formerly public school nurse in Jacksonville, is now on the way for overseas duty, according to letters received by Jacksonville friends. Miss Johnson has been at a southern hospital in training for some months. She has occasionally written of her work there and was enthusiastic about it. In one letter she referred to the rigorous drill and her enjoyment of it. She mentioned that nearly all of the nurses appreciated this part of the training and would really regret to leave their drill masters. That Miss Johnson had made a good record was indicated by her appointment as a lieutenant in the nurses' organization. When they go on board ship they move in military formation and the organization continues during the travel overseas.

Many courtesies are extended nurses in training and Miss Johnson has written about a number of social occasions and referred especially to one recent reception when the nurses had the opportunity of meeting Surgeon General and Mrs. Gorgas. Knowing that Miss Johnson is soon to go overseas, a number of her Jacksonville friends have sent a large package of stamper letters. It contained a number written by children of the Josephine Milligan school and Miss Johnson's friends know that she will especially appreciate reading these missives as she is enroute across the water. Miss Johnson's address is Unit 11, A. N. C. A. E. F., New York.

Minnesota Wheat Lands

Kittson County, where the late James J. Hill had a 26,000 acre wheat and stock farm offers unusual opportunities.

The Payne Investment Co. now offers an attractive list of farms in that county, values ranging from $40 to $75 an acre, according to location and improvements.

Read what John W. Thomas, a Morgan county man who located in Kittson county this year, says:

"The grain in this locality is looking fine. We have had an abundance of moisture and from present prospects I expect to harvest enough this year to equal the value of the quarter section of land I purchased. The climate has been ideal thus far and all the members of my family are in the best of health. If you are thinking of buying land I don't know any locality where it will pay for itself as quickly or advance as rapidly as here. The country is settling up very rapidly. Wheat, oats, alfalfa and barley are the principal crops. The soil is rich, black and deep."

Will be pleased to furnish literature and information about Kittson county farms, most of which are located near Humboldt.

Letters of Interest from Jacksonville Boys in the Country's Service.

Henry Ricks Writes from France.
Mr. and Mrs. John Ricks have received the following letters from their son, Private Henry Ricks of the Marine corps who has been in France for more than a year past. Somewhere in France, July 3, 1918.

My Dear Parents:
I received your dear letter of June 8th and will answer in a few lines and don't feel disappointed if my letters are short for we have so little to write and the main thing is to know I am well and enjoying French life and as long as all of us are well we can be satisfied and thankful.

It is wonderful how dear Old Grandmother hangs on to life and how peaceful and without pain she is able to live. I cannot see how an old lady like her can be so patient and never speaks an unkind word.

Tomorrow is the fourth of July and the French are helping us to celebrate and I guess we will have a fine time. It seems fine to walk down the streets and see Old Glory hanging from every window and with it the tri-color of France. I hope it won't be long before we can celebrate a bigger fourth in the Kaiser's Dear Berlin.

We are having wonderful weather and I am as sunburned as an Indian. I am on duty and have been waiting for the alert to sound, but I don't think Old Fritz will come over tonight because it is rather windy. If I am in bed when he comes I go to sleep, never pay any attention to him anymore for we are so used to it that the guns tell us to sleep.

I have got several more letters to write, one to Walt Spaulding, Harry, Reverend Myron Pontius and also Ruth so I must close. Take the best of care of my little darling, with heaps of love to all.

Your loving son,
Henry.

My Dear Mother:
I received your most welcome letter a few minutes ago and was very glad to get it, only it was not near long enough. I also received the cakes and magazines. I owe an answer to sister's last two letters, but will answer them soon. Well, you save the Sauer rait and I will eat my share when I get there. Say, how many squirrels did Papa and Bill get when they went out? If they were here, where I am going tomorrow they wouldn't have any trouble in getting two or three limits for they are sure thick. Well, this is another birthday, and hope he has a good-pay day as that is about all I can wish him, for this is work day tomorrow. Well, I don't know what to write about as this place is about like Jacksonville, the same thing over and over again. Sis, I will send Lance's letters home if I don't forget it. There is lots of hurrahing going on outside so I think I will see what it is all about, maybe they have killed the Kaiser. It was just a bunch of folks making some noise. Have the folks come on any fishing trips. I haven't and don't know when I will.

Well as I can't think of anything more to say, will close for this time, hoping this finds you all well. I remain your loving son and brother.

George Wilkin Now in France.
The following letters have been received by Charles L. Wilkin of route 7 from his son, George, who is with the 123d Field Artillery, "somewhere in France." July 4, 1918.

Dear Father:
Am now feeling fine, having fully recovered from the seasickness from which I suffered coming over. I received the letter you sent to Camp Merritt July 1, and was certainly glad to hear from home. Hope that all are well and that things are prospering with you.

I have seen many curious and interesting sights over in this country. Have seen numerous ox teams working and this is certainly an odd sight to me. They drive them forward by striking the nose. The custom of driving horses is also an odd one over here, one being hitched in front of the other.

As for our sleeping quarters, they are all right; could be better but at the same time could be a whole lot worse. The food is plentiful and of a wholesome, appetizing kind. For breakfast we generally have wheat cakes and syrup, eggs and toast. I am in good spirits and enjoying the army life immensely. I have visited a number of interesting places and have seen some wonderful scenery since landing in France.

At Camp Shelby, Miss.
The following letter was written to Jacksonville friends by Clifford A. Emerson, who is a member of Battalion C, 39th Field Artillery, Camp Shelby, Miss.

Dear Friends:
I am writing this letter for the purpose of giving you my impressions of camp and army life. I am sure that those left at home are glad to hear the particulars about camp life. For myself, I am proud to be of service to my country and am glad I answered her call. Every able-bodied, true American should without hesitation respond to nation's call and render every possible service.

The military training is the finest thing imaginable for a young man as the physical and moral benefits are great. The Morgan county boys are all in fine spirits and are all ready and waiting to be sent overseas. We are all anxious to go after the Kaiser's "goat" and I really believe the Yankees do not intend to leave a single Hun on the face of the earth. We all expect to come back home after victory is won and we will bring Old Glory along with us, for we never intend to let the stars and stripes touch the ground.

The Illinois boys are ranking the highest of any in this camp. Our officers are all well pleased with the men and are always asking for them. We are always glad to hear from our friends at home and letters and newspapers are always greeted with joy. We are still all together and I hope we will remain so until we come back home.

The weather is very warm here and is especially hard for the boys from the north, but I think we will be able to stand it and be in good condition to face the Huns later on. Army life is the finest thing going, even if it is a trifle strenuous sometimes. We are at present drilling six hours daily. The branch of service I am in is the best of all, the heavy field artillery, we back them all up.

Hoping to see all of you when I return home, I am,

Yours truly,
Clifford A. Emerson,

Fred Spieth Writes From France.

The following letter and card have been received by Otto Spieth from his brother Fred, who is now in France. He is connected with the photographers' unit of the service.

July 24, 1918.

Dear Mother:
I am well, getting along fine. I was transferred out of my squadron and expect to be assigned to photographic division. The photographic end of the game is worked altogether different here than it is in the United States. We have good barracks and I take a hot water bath every day.

Bye,
FRED.
St. Maurel, France.

July 16, 1918.

Dear Brother and All:
I am well, getting along just fine. We landed in this Sunday noon and were put in a dandy camp for a few days rest. We were given a trade test and they made a special note of photographers, and some other trades. I understand that we are to be transferred out of the squadron. I expect that we will be sent to school for a while. Our fliers and officers were transferred so it will make the bunch look pretty slim, but I guess a lot of us will be put at our trades when we will be able to do something. I don't like to leave the bunch, but I guess I will be put in the photographic branch and I will like that a whole lot better. Things look somewhat different here than they do in the States. Four years of war sure does tell on a country. People in the U. S. don't realize what is going on over here. At meal time kids and women wait at the mess hall doors with pails to take what the fellows have left in their kits. When it gets down to that they must be pretty hungry. I never expected to see anything like that. The weather has been real nice yesterday and today. Well I haven't any more to write, but I hear from you. I will close with my best love and regards to all.

Edward Wright Over There
Somewhere in France,
June 27, 1918

Dear Mother:
Well, I guess you all thought I forgot to tell you home. But this leaves me feeling in good health and hoping you all the same. I am now in France. This is a greater country than I thought it was. We are having some nice cool weather now. All the other boys are getting along all right and having a good time. We are not in the same company My trip over here was just fine; the deep blue sea was just fine.

Well I have not got much to write now, but I want to let you know I am in France, and don't worry I will try and get home as soon as possible.

Give my best regards to everybody until we all return again. From your loving son,

Court house meeting Saturday night, 8 o'clock, to discuss the question of what is for the best interest of Jacksonville at the election next Tuesday.

SAVES TWO FROM DROWNING.
Gail Rapson twenty years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rapson said that Angelo and Vincent Davidson from drowning in Bushy Creek south of Jacksonville Sunday Angelo had started to swim across the creek and was unable to make the opposite shore. Davidson tried to save him and both sank. Rapson who had sat at home heard the cries of the boys on the bank of the creek and returned and took them from the water. After working over them for some time they recovered and were able to return home.

CONSERVING PAPER.
Now that conservation is the order of the day there is one direction in which there might be a great conservation of wrapping paper. Of late years it has become a custom in hardware stores to wrap dish pans, coal hods, milk buckets and all manner of bulky articles. Of course some goods must be wrapped but a visit to many stores will show a great deal of wrapping that is useless.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF NEW FALL HATS JUST RECEIVED AT HERMAN'S.

MATT STARR POST, ATTENTION!
Regular meeting of Matt Starr Post at 7:30 this evening. A full attendance is requested.
J. M. Swales, Commander.
C. E. McDougall, Adjutant.

RETURNS FROM TRIP.
Miss Annette Lindsay, of 218 West College avenue, returned yesterday from a six weeks' trip through Colorado. While in Colorado Miss Lindsay spent quite a bit of her time in Denver, making trips to various places of interest from that city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cully and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Black will leave today in Mr. Black's car for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station to spend several days with Clyde Black, who is in the naval service.

LORADO TAFT.

Lorado Taft, Illinois' world-famed sculptor, has a studio on the Midway Plaisance in Chicago, where he is associated with some twenty associated sculptors and assistants. His summer home is on Rock River, where he is perpetual president of the Eagle's Nest an association of people connected with various arts and where he erected the colossal "Blackhawk" in commemoration of the former occupants of the beautiful Rock River Valley. Mr. Taft has placed many noted pieces in Chicago and other cities and is now at work upon the great "Fountain of Time" for the Midway in Chicago.

Mr. Taft is a fluent speaker, full of spontaneity, alive with humor, interesting his audiences as he carries them almost unconsciously thru an evening of the highest educational value.

With a purring fire of witty retorts, of happy comparison and intelligent description he holds his audience spellbound. He brings with him and arranges on the platform studio fixtures and pictures and with the help of an assistant gives us "A Glimpse of A Sculptor's Studio," and shows us "How Statues Are Made." Jacksonville Chautauqua, Fri. Aug. 23 to Sun. Sept. 1, Inclusive.

FUNERALS

Russell.

Funeral services for Mrs. Jesse Russell were held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Lohman, 400 South Main street at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. A. A. Todd, pastor of First Baptist church.

Miss Hilma Franz sang with deep feeling, "Abide With Me," and "Shadows." Mr. Todd read appropriate passages of the scripture and then offered prayer. The pastor's remarks while brief were deeply impressive and carried with them many comforting thoughts for the bereaved members of the family. A few of his thoughts are given.

"The occasion on which we are called together this afternoon is one in which are mingled feelings of sorrow and hope. I saw the deceased the day before her death and in her face could be seen the look of absolute trust in the hereafter."

"This mother's life was one of unselfish devotion to her family and loved ones. This unselfish devotion was repaid in the closing days of her life by the kindness and love bestowed upon her by her daughter, Mrs. Lohman."

"The loss of a mother brings a peculiar sorrow. It touches a chord not touched by any other sorrow. Mother's love is different from a father's love. It springs from mother nature that forgives even when it knows that there is wrong. Mother's love and influence is the greatest single force in the world. James A. Garfield once said, 'All that I am I owe to my mother.'"

"The duty of a child to its parents is next to its duty to God. How blessed is the child who after the parents are gone has no unkind words or deeds to recall. If you who have lost your mothers might go to the cemetery some beautiful summer afternoon and look on mother's grave. Then look up into the blue of heaven and pledge yourself anew to Mother's God. Promise to do only the things that mother would approve if she were here."

There were many beautiful floral offerings and these were cared for by Miss Anna O'Connell, Miss Josephine Price, Miss Helen Sisk and Miss Helen Vickery.

Burial was in Jacksonville cemetery the bearers being Stephen Bergschneider, Mathew Wagner, Edward Kitzer, C. C. Williamson, Harry W. Dorwart, John Minter.

Hopper.

Funeral service in memory of the late Mrs. John Hopper were held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minter, Thursday afternoon. The services were attended by a large company of friends and relatives and Dr. J. R. Harker was in charge. Mrs. E. D. Canatsey, with Mrs. Lucy Kolp as accompanist, sang two solos, "Face to Face" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." There were many beautiful flowers and they were cared for by Misses Ruth Hopper, Frances Leck, Boss Hopper, Nellie Hopper, Enid Beattall and Mrs. George Lelle. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery and the bearers, nephews of the deceased, were Dr. Charles Hopper, Fletcher Hopper, Fred Lambert, Grover Caldwell, Roy Hopper and Frank Hunter.

Dr. Harker read various passages of scripture and then spoke briefly in a most comforting way. He spoke of God as a loving father, who arranges all things for the best good of His children. So bereavements and disappointments may come, but after awhile men and women are able to understand the meaning of those things which had seemed difficult of understanding. Thru the promises of the scripture those who believe in Christianity know that God does not act in vengeance or in anger and so the sting of separation and death is taken away. The minister said that the friends and relatives of one who, like Mrs. Hopper, had lived for so many years, must be thankful indeed that God permitted the relationship to continue thru so many decades. Mrs. Hopper spent a happy, useful life thru many decades and it is a privilege given to her family to think of that long association and recognize that God has been good to them thru the years.

Dr. Harker referred to the fact that Mrs. Hopper had been a member of Grace church for more than sixty years, loyal to the interests of the organization and seeking in various ways to be helpful to her family and community. He mentioned that it must come as a comforting thought at such a time that, after all, bereavement is short lived and separation brief, for days and years glide swiftly by until there comes a glad reunion for those who live faithfully and justly.

For Tired Women With Aching Heads

"They help me so much and I find relief as soon as I begin taking your Foley Kidney Pills," Mrs. Frank P. Wood, Morrill, Maine, R. F. D. No. 2.

Sometimes it seems as if you can't stand the pain and your back. It is a real making your life miserable and robbing you of all energy and strength. When you are constantly tired, head aches, aching, nerves "on edge," kidney action painful and burning, then is the time to start in at once on Foley Kidney Pills.

They strengthen the weak, ailing kidneys, improve their action, enable them to throw off the poisons that cause your trouble. Your nerves grow peaceful, sleep becomes sounder, nervous headaches disappear. As Mrs. Wood says: "I find relief as soon as I begin to take your Foley Kidney Pills." Be sure you get the genuine Foley Kidney Pills, for they are purely medicinal and contain no harmful drugs.

WATT AND LEWIS FAMILY REUNION

Yesterday morning a merry throng arrived in Nicholas park to enjoy the annual reunion of the Watt and Lewis families. Baskets well filled with the good things of life were in abundance and everything passed off with complete success. The playground, the swimming pool, the boats and all means of enjoyment were used to the utmost and late in the afternoon the party broke up and left for home, a bit tired but full of pleasant recollections. It was decided to hold the next reunion on the first Thursday in August next year.

Among those present were Leslie Switzer and family, southwest of the city; Mrs. Amanda Watt, Irvin Watt and wife, William Frost and children, Warren Watt and family, Charles Pittman, Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gaddis, Sylvester Watt, Ashland; Charles Wyatt and daughter, of Franklin; Mrs. Lillian Angelo, Jacksonville; Tony Watt, Peoria; Louis Watt, wife and children, Jacksonville.

The Twelve-Month-A-Year Kitchen Range

IF YOU use a wood or coal range it makes your kitchen too hot in the Summer; if you use a gas or oil stove, it doesn't keep your kitchen warm in the Winter. Two ranges are a waste of money, for the DUPLEX ALCAZAR gives you two kitchen ranges in one.

It is made in two types: one burns wood or coal and gas; the other uses wood or coal and oil. No changes necessary to use the different fuels singly or in combination. The DUPLEX ALCAZAR is always ready to do its part in cutting fuel costs, bettering cooking results and keeping your kitchen comfortable the year round.

THE DUPLEX ALCAZAR

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier at very small cost.

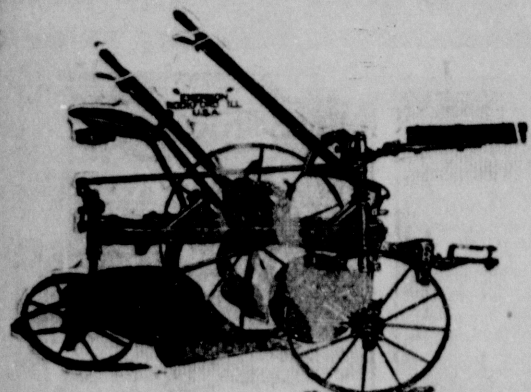

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

The Standard of Excellency

The proof of the pudding is in eating it, not in chewing the string. Therefore, the proof of plowing is to ask the user about the Emerson Gang and Sulky, the lightest draft, the easiest handled, and most durable plows on the market. Watch the team smile when hitched to an EMERSON.

—LIGHTEST DRAFT—

Note the distance from front wheel to rear wheel. All in a bunch, your load close to team and all the load carried on the wheels. Our lock for holding plow in the ground is closer to the front of the plow than on any other make, which assures that the plow will stay in the ground better, and the draft is always downward. We believe this the only correct method of locking and holding plow in the correct position. A perfect solid wheel boxing, oil tight, dust proof, running on a four to six inch longer bearing than any other make, and also a larger wheel. These above facts assure you light draft.

—EASIEST HANDLED—

Both hand levers on the right side and assisted by raising springs. By so placing the hand levers it is easy to get on or off plow. The foot lever for raising and lowering plow is on the left side, which also makes it extra convenient. The foot lever has more power than any other make, which allows the operator to force plow into the ground or raise it out with very light points which eliminates the torsional feature until you have seen it operate.

—MOST DURABLE—

Wheel and wheel bearing practically indestructible. Double bail, proven by all manufacturers the most durable. Frame is one single piece of high carbon steel, connected to rear axle by extra strong malleable casting with extra long bearings. The land axle extends across the frame, attaching to both ends, with extra heavy bracing at front end. Brail brackets attached close to the under side of frame. Bails are short and farther apart at the pivot points which eliminates the torsional strain on the frame caused by most constructions. The plow bottom has an extra heavy steel frog and the only real successful quick-detachable share made. Extra case hardened soft center moldboard and share giving best scouring qualities. Also, perfectly running rolling couler.

EIGHT NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 7.—Eight passengers on a Painesville Interurban car were injured and narrowly escaped death late today when a section of the Grand River bridge, between Painesville and Fairport, collapsed, plunging the car twenty five feet into twenty feet of water in the Grand river. The car collided with a motor truck throwing it against one of the bridge girders which gave way. All the victims were taken to Painesville hospitals. None will die.

CLEVELAND DEFEATS WASHINGTON 8 TO 4

By Winning Cleveland Takes the Series Two to One—Washington Takes Sixteen Players—Boston Takes Last of Series from Detroit.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 8.—By winning today's game 8 to 4, Cleveland took the series from Washington two to one. The visitors used sixteen players but the locals scored off each of the four Washington pitchers. Manager Griffith and infielder McBride of Washington were chased from the field by Umpire Nallin for protesting a decision. A spectacular one-hand catch by Roth of Shotton's drive in the first inning featured.

CHASE SUSPENDED.

New York, Aug. 7.—Harold (Hal) Chase, captain and first baseman of the Cincinnati Nationals, has been indefinitely suspended because of indifferent playing, it was announced tonight by Manager Mathewson. Chase was under similar charge in 1913 while playing on the New York Americans and was traded by Manager Frank Chance to the Chicago Americans.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Disking Wheat Ground—The ground is very hard to plow in some fields. Farmers will gain time by disking the fields before plowing. Moisture is being lost all the time. If a mulch is made with disk this will be conserved and plowing can go on without interruption.

Smut Treatment—Where wheat is infected with stinking smut, the formaldehyde treatment should be given. In using this treatment for wheat, the grain is put into a vessel containing the solution. The light kernels come to the top and are skimmed off. The rest of the treatment is the same as for oat smut.

Plenty of Harvest Help in the Dakotas—The Dakota branches of the farm labor department have notified the Chicago office not to send any more harvest hands to the northwest. The work is said to be well over and a sufficient supply of local labor is available. This statement is made because of inquiries at this office for special transportation rates for farm laborers who want to go to the northwest.

Demand for Morgan County Farms—Numerous inquiries have come to this office from tenants outside the county and sometimes from outside the state for Morgan County farms. In every case these have been referred to men who have farms to rent.

Married Men Wanted for Farm Work—At the present time there are numerous requests for good married men for work on the farms. Last spring the supply exceeded the demand. At present the demand exceeds the supply.

Sound Advice for Farmers—Resolution No. 1. The Committee of the Illinois State Association of County Agriculturists recommends that no farmer buy stock in any promotional stock company, but use his excess capital to increase his production, or improve marketing, or to aid the Government in its prosecution of the war.

 The Committee recommends that the use of anything but serum or serum and virus to control and cure hog cholera be discouraged. "Many so-called hog cholera remedies are on the market which if used will not only cause the loss of many hogs which serum and virus properly used will save."

Advisory Committee of the Illinois State Association of County Agriculturists.

LEAVE TO ENLIST.
 Chicago, Aug. 7.—Fred McMullin, third baseman and Charley Risberil, star utility man, left the Chicago American baseball club tonight and started for the Pacific coast where they plan to enlist. McMullin plans to become a jackie at the San Pedro submarine base, while Risberil will enlist at the Presidio at San Francisco. Sixteen of the White Sox players have enlisted up to the present time.

Mrs. Sibert Tells How You Can Overcome Nervous Conditions

Louisville, Ky. — "I suffered badly from nervousness, a run down condition, no appetite and pains in my back—until I just had to give up. A friend told me about Vinol and I felt better after taking the second bottle. Now I have a good appetite and am feeling fine, strong and healthy in every way."—Mrs. I. F. Seibert.
 The reason Vinol was so successful in Mrs. Seibert's case, is because it contains the very elements needed to build up a weak body, run down system, make rich red blood and create strength. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

GOVERNMENT REPORT

MADE CORN ADVANCE
CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Correct anticipation that the government report would have a decidedly bullish aspect made corn today average higher. Prices closed strong, at 5c to 1c net advance with Sept. 1.62 1/2 to 1.62 3/4 and Oct. 1.64 to 1.64 1/4. Oats finished 3/4 to 1/2 up. In provisions the outcome varied from 15 @ 20c decline to 25c advance.

Despite good rainfall west and southwest and notwithstanding temperatures were somewhat lower, corn quickly rose. The bulge in price however, led to liberal selling by longs who were somewhat influenced by continued rains in Kansas but tension in regard to the government report dominated values again at the last.

Oats were ruled by the action of corn. Trade as a whole was light. Record-breaking prices in the hog market tended to strengthen provisions, ribs that were depressed by sales from dealers who simultaneously were buying lard.

STOCK MARKET

SLUGGISH THURSDAY
NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The proposed extension of federal regulation over various lines of trade and commerce accounted quite as much as anything else for further sluggish and uncertain course of stocks today.

Telephone and telegraph companies again weakened with Western Union at a new minimum and packing issues were heavy on the severe arraignment of those interests by the federal trade commission, which recommended control of that industry and its many collateral branches.

Baldwin Locomotive, distillers, industrial alcohol, fertilizers, and tobaccos contributed to the stability of the active list although Sumatra tobacco's extreme advance of four points was cancelled at the close. Rails were in the background, making no response in the last hour to the government's crop report which indicated conditions variably under the conditions of the preceding days. Sales 350,000.

Bonds varied, liberty third 4 1/2 registered a new low record, 94.80. Total sales (par value) $5,925,000.

HAROLD BARTLETT WROTE TO FATHER

Told of Trip for Supplies—Indicated Exciting Time that a Man Constantly Encounters in Front Line.

Harold Bartlett who was killed in action in France recently wrote his father an interesting letter just before his death of his experience with a detail to get water and rations for comrades in the front line trenches. The following are extracts from the letter which was received Wednesday.

On Active Service with the American Expeditionary Forces, July 10 Dear Dad:

I think the last time I wrote to you I told you we were expecting to go back from the lines for a good long rest, but unfortunately we were called back to the front a couple of days after I wrote, so for the last three weeks I have had no chance whatever to write again.

I received your letter of June 6 stating that you got my long letter telling you about our first trip to the front, and was sure glad to know that it had reached you O. K. Hope the rest of these long ones I've been writing get to you all right.

Exposed to Direct Fire. Our last trip to the front wasn't very exciting, not nearly so much doing as the first time we went up. We relieved some men who had been holding the lines for several days and since we made no attacks our casualties were small. However, we held a hillside exposed to the direct fire of the German guns and so were forced to keep in our holes all the time except at night. Nothing of any importance happened in the last trip, so I'm going back to our first trip to the front lines and tell you about a trip I took one night with a bunch detailed to go after rations.

We crawled out of our holes at dark just after the big bombardment I told you about in my last letter, and about a dozen of us started out with canteens and sacks to carry water and rations in. We had all put in a strenuous day and all of us were tired, hungry and thirsty. We started out following a guide who had only a hazy idea of the path leading to the town, and in a few minutes we were breaking our way thru heavy underbrush in pitch darkness, tripping and stumbling as we went and making enough noise so we thought, to start all the Dutch artillery within a hundred miles. Finally we reached a ravine about two hundred yards from the lines and started to follow it. The ravine was the dry bed of a stream, full of big boulders, three or four feet in diameter and the night was so dark we couldn't see our hands before us, so you can easily imagine the time we had stumbling and falling over those rocks, stopping now and then to listen to the shriek of a shell passing overhead to make sure it wasn't going to fall short, then resuming our journey, stumbling and cursing with every step we took.

We followed this for about a quarter of a mile, and all of a sudden Fritz lost his temper and commenced throwing shells into that woods by the car loads. We made a dive for the ditch and all of us laid down beside the boulders and waited for the storm to pass over. The shelling lasted for about half an hour, and of all the freakish sounds and noises, I think the shells win the prize. They began by throwing high explosive shells, the kind that burst when they strike the ground, and then the shrapnel began bursting overhead. After a while Fritz cooled down and the shelling stopped so we got up and started on our journey again.

Began Shelling Town. At last we made it to the town, found the well and started to fill our canteens. I drank one full can of water and had just started to fill the others when the Huns began shelling the town. We all ran to a building where our "chow" wagon was staying and got into an old wine cellar there to wait till it was quiet again.

It was broad daylight when the shelling stopped and we were able to go out and finish filling our cans again. I was carrying twenty cans, each one weighing nearly two and a half pounds when full, and besides that I carried my combat pack, a full belt containing a hundred rounds of ammunition, two mandoliers containing fifty rounds each, enough ammunition to shoot up the whole country I think. Besides this I had my gas mask and rifle. Some load for a fellow like me, in the condition I was in.

We took the road for a short distance and then started down the ravine again. The trip wasn't so bad in daylight and we made it back in about an hour. The ditch was lined all the way with men who had been struck by pieces of shell while trying to get from the front to the town, and now and then we met wounded men from our own company coming to the town to meet the ambulances. When we got back to the lines the boys were all glad to see us, for they had been about twenty-four hours without water. That is just one trip such as the boys make every day to get food and water up to the fellows in the lines.

Well, Dad, I'm afraid this is getting too long. The censor will be using it for fuel if I don't cut it short.

REVENUE DIRECTOR TO RESIDE IN THIS CITY

S. J. Tompkins, Deputy Revenue Director in This District, Comes to Jacksonville from Pekin—Duties Will Be Mainly of Investigating Character.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Tompkins and family, who recently came from Pekin to Jacksonville, are at the home of Mrs. Tompkins parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Allen on Sandusky street, until they find a suitable house to lease.

As previously mentioned, Mr. Tompkins has come to Jacksonville to serve as deputy revenue director in this district, which is now composed of Morgan and Greene counties. Until recently there have been only seven or eight divisions in this revenue district, whereas there are now more than twenty. This has come about because of the great increase in revenue collection work. Mr. Tompkins was first appointed to a position in the revenue department by Governor Yates and for the past twenty years he has been connected with the service, being located at Pekin.

For the present Mr. Tompkins' duties will be largely of an investigating character, and he will familiarize himself with general and individual conditions in both Morgan and Greene counties. Eventually he will be expected to know the facts about each taxpayer's property and to know whether the provisions of the revenue law are being met. A little later on Mr. Tompkins will establish an office where he will be located in the compilation of his own reports and for consultation with persons having business with the revenue collection office. Mr. Tompkins said yesterday changes and rulings with reference to revenue laws are constantly being received from Washington.

As a deputy revenue director I do not pretend to know all the ins and outs of the revenue laws. Some questions I can answer and doubtless some questions I cannot answer. However, I will be in a position to quickly secure information on any special subject or an interpretation from the revenue department on any knotty problems." So many questions are constantly coming up in connection with the new complex laws that it will be really a matter of convenience for the people of Jacksonville and Morgan county to have a revenue man making this his headquarters.

Mr. Tompkins' long experience in the revenue work indicates that he is well qualified for the position of larger responsibility that he has now taken.

FAMILY EXCURSIONISTS Prof. Pease of the department of agriculture, Nebraska State Normal college, was in the city yesterday with his wife, son and young lady friend. They were traveling in an Overland car and carried along camping appliances and were roughing it, seeking health and recreation and from their appearance they were finding plenty of both. They had been to Des Moines, Cisco, Davenport and various other places and were homeward bound on the Ocean-to-Ocean Trail. Like most men of his kind, Prof. Pease is a very affable and ready to answer questions propounded to him. He said he found dusty roads in almost all directions and a pressing need of rain which is also the condition in Nebraska. He spoke encouragingly of affairs in general and seemed well pleased with what he had seen in the city and elsewhere.

CHARLES DRURY WEDS DECATUR YOUNG WOMAN

Marriage of Well Known Moravian County Man and Miss Helen Waddell Solemnized in Decatur Tuesday Evening—Will Reside in This County.

The marriage of Charles Drury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Drury, of this county, and Miss Helen Waddell, was solemnized in Decatur Tuesday evening. The young people are now taking a brief wedding journey and later will be at home with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drury, on their Orleans farm. The Decatur Review gives the following account of the wedding:

In a pretty twilight wedding, Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Waddell, Miss Helen Waddell became the bride of Charles Drury, of Jacksonville. The ceremony, which took place at 8 o'clock, was performed in the living room, the couple standing in a bow made of goldenrod and tall baskets of baby's breath. Rev. T. Harley Marsh, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated.

Miss Waddell made a charming bride in her gown of white georgette over satin, trimmed in real lace. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, which she afterwards presented to her mother. Little Betty Waddell, niece of the bride, was ring bearer and carried the ring on a white satin cushion. The little girl wore a pretty dress of white organdie and her hair was tied with a large tulle bow.

Preceding the wedding service, Miss Ruth Lavery played three violin numbers. These were followed by "At Dawning," sung by Miss Katherine Kyde, accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Waddell and Miss Lavery. At the conclusion of the song Mrs. Waddell and Miss Lavery began the Lohengrin wedding march, and the bride party entered. During the ceremony "Salut d'Armour" was played softly and afterwards the Mendelssohn wedding march was played.

Following the service a wedding dinner was served. The tables were decorated with roses. Even before the dinner was over the couple slipped away from their friends, who had intended giving them the usual wedding sendoff, and went to the train for the wedding journey. They have not told their destination, although it is known their honeymoon will be spent at a lake where they have secured a cottage.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Waddell and is a graduate of the James Millikin university in the class of 1918. She is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Drury is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drury, of Jacksonville, and is manager of a large farm near that city. For several years he attended the University of Illinois.

One of the young guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drury and their sons, Hiram and Tomlin, and daughter Anna Belle, of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomlin, Mr. and Mrs. George Witty and Horace Witty, of Pleasant Plains; Miss Anna and Mrs. Frances Tomlin, of Tallapoosa; Miss Edna and Miss Vera Vera Tomlin, of Edinburg; Buel Swope, of Edinburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Waddell and daughter, Betty, of Chestnut, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Waddell, of Chicago.

VISITING ARTISTS

The Metropolitan Glee Club of Chicago visited the city yesterday enroute by automobiles to the next engagement at Walnut, Indiana. The gentlemen, all chautauqua attractions during the season and are a great success in their chosen field. They are F. M. Gates, S. F. Myers, F. L. Lucas and Don McDowell, musicians and Albert Miller, patriotic lecturer. The musicians have four trombones, also Swiss bells, and will sing in addition to their instrumental work. Some of them are also fine elocutionists and give numbers in that line.

All are most affable gentlemen whom it is a real pleasure to meet. Two of them have appeared in the past with glee clubs of Illinois college and are not total strangers in the place. They have a number of engagements ahead of them and will be kept going quite busily during the remainder of the year. They are dressed for their journey and are common sense men gaining health and vigor along with their artistic work.

MRS. MEDILL MCCORMICK at the JACKSONVILLE CHAUTAUQUA

Mrs. McCormick who for many years has been an active leader in the activities of the women of Illinois and who is a speaker of unusual charm and force will discuss "Woman's Task in the Home" in the time. Probably no woman of Illinois is more in demand for public addresses than Mrs. McCormick. The management of the Chautauqua has for several years had many requests for Mrs. McCormick and has tried to bring her here for former assemblies.

Mrs. L. Hildreth has been quite indisposed for the past two days, but is home on South Davidson avenue. His many friends will be pleased to hear that he will soon be as good as new.

SERMON SUBJECT WAS "THE RICH YOUNG MAN"

Rev. Thomas Simons Conducts Union Services—Ice Cream Social Will Be Given Saturday Evening by Sunday School Classes—Other News of Interest from Concord.

Concord, Aug. 7.—The fifth number of the union services was held at the Christian church on Sunday evening at 8:15. A good sized audience braved the heat and dust to attend. Minister C. G. Cantrell presided. Rev. Thomas Simons gave the sermon. The theme was "The Rich Young Man". Mr. Simons is an entertaining and forceful speaker, and his sermon was well received. Miss Eva Abernathy, Miss Alma Deterding, Bert Way and R. E. Abernathy sang as a quartet, a very sweet song which was highly appreciated by the audience. Grace Roxton was accompanied. Rev. C. A. Fairchild was present and made the opening prayer. The next meeting will be at the M. P. church on Sunday evening at 8:15. A good attendance is desired.

An ice cream social will be given next Saturday evening on the M. P. church lawn by two of the Sunday school classes.

The M. E. Sunday School held a very successful ice cream supper last Saturday night.

Concord's ministers all attended a service flag dedication at Grace Chapel last Sunday afternoon and each had a part in the service which was highly interesting and impressive.

Mrs. Henderson, daughter Ruth and sons, Leland, Marion, and Howard, accompanied by friend D. M. Dawson, of Long Point, took a basket dinner and went to Nichols Park on Saturday when they spent a part of the day very pleasantly. Mr. Dawson went home on Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brainer their home in McAllen, Texas, a son. His birthday is dated Aug. 5th. Mrs. Brainer was formerly Miss Georgia Christman of Merritt. Her parents received a message by wire that told them of the arrival of the new boy. Mrs. Ethelyn Flank received a telephone message from Mrs. Christman, telling the welcome news. The many friends of the young couple will be ready with congratulations.

Austin Taylor McQuon was born August 10, 1846, in Wayne Township, Armstrong County, Pennsylvania. He departed this life August 3rd, 1918, so he only lacked one week of reaching 72 years. He was united in marriage to Christina Dettrick. To this union were born eight children, two preceding him in death. Mada Rebecca died in infancy. Mrs. Charles Fisher died in 1910. He is survived by his widow and the following named children, John, at home; Mrs. G. L. Moore, Granite City; Mrs. J. E. Jettison, Bloomington; George B. Griffin, Chapin; Also one brother of Roodhouse, and a host of friends. He resided near the place of his birth until 1893, moving by wagon and locating near Manchester, Scott County, where he lived until 1902. He then moved to Denver, Colorado, where he resided about nine months, returning to Kansas City for a two years' stay, coming back to Morgan County in 1906, and engaged in farming until his death. He was a kind and loving father and husband and had many friends, and was always ready to help others in time of need.

The funeral of the late Austin McQuon was held at the home on the John Ham farm, on Monday afternoon. Rev. Thomas Simons of the M. E. church, had charge of the services. A select choir composed of Mrs. Kate Johnson, Miss Alma Deterding, Bert Way and C. O. Bayless sang the following hymns in a very comforting manner: "Nearer My God to Thee," "My Heavenly Home," and "Asleep in Jesus". The bearers were as follows: Henry Tiemann, J. E. Whorton, Sam Brockhouse, A. J. Wheeler, Charles Baker and Jerry Griffin. Burial was made in Concord cemetery. Those from a distance to attend the funeral were: Mrs. I. E. Jettison, of Bloomington, and Mr. McQuon of Roodhouse.

Mrs. Jesse Morrison is being visited by her three sisters, one coming by auto from Chicago. Charles Aufdenkamp and W. R. Zahn threshed their oats Monday on opposite sides of the Burlington Way John Zahn and his steam machine, and Daniel Dettrick and his new "Red River Special" pulled by a tractor did the work. The yield was good for this year.

Corn is suffering from hot winds and lack of rain. Pastures too need rain.

MANY IMPROVMENTS AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Work or Remodeling and Other Improvements Being Done—J. E. O'Neil is in Charge of Work.

Under the supervision of J. E. O'Neil who has been sent to Jacksonville by the Department of Public Works of the State, the Illinois School for the Deaf is undergoing extensive repairs. Most of the work is being done on the dormitories and Main Hall of the school. Culom Hall and the Little Boys' Cottage have been cleaned, re-painted and decorated thruout, which adds very much to the appearance of the buildings.

In the main building the dining room for the entire school being rewired and new electric light fixtures are being put in. This work is being held back somewhat by the delay of getting necessary materials here. However it is progressing nicely and will be completed by the opening of school in September. The walls and ceiling of the hall are being cleaned and re-decorated, which give an attractive appearance to the room.

The superintendent's office which before has been located on the southeast side of the building is now being changed to the first room on the south side of the hall from the main entrance of the building. This room was formerly used as a private parlor by the superintendent. This will make it much more convenient for the public when calling at the school.

Minor repairs are being made where necessary to the other building of the school, but are only of minor detail.

As much work as possible is being done by the patient help from the State Hospital. The labor problem is one of great difficulty at the present time and it is very hard to secure labor at all.

Mr. O'Neil who is in charge of the work was formerly at Lincoln and then was appointed superintendent of the Capitol building at Springfield.

RUMOR PROVED FALSE Yesterday a rumor was current around the city that Harry Lee Grady, 819 East College avenue, had been severely wounded over-seas. The rumor proved false. On July 14 Grady had mailed several official cards to his parents and friends in the city which arrived yesterday, saying that he was quite well, and that he had not received any letters for a long time. On one of the cards to a friend the sentence "severely wounded" was marked out as it was on the others. It is supposed that in the hurry of mailing them he neglected to mark out this sentence on the one card which gave basis for the rumor. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Grady, 819 East College avenue.

IS HOME FROM AN EASTERN VISIT

Miss Esther Antrobus of Chapin Took Interesting Trip With Party of Friends—Many Cities Visited.

Miss Esther Antrobus of Chapin has returned to her home from a two months tour of the eastern states.

She left Jacksonville June 14 going to Springfield where she joined a party of friends for the trip. Mrs. Charles T. Bisch of Springfield chaperoned the party. Leaving Springfield they drove east thru Indiana and Ohio. Near Lima, Ohio, they visited the largest artificial lake in the world which covers 27 square miles.

They then took a boat trip on Lake Erie visiting the various lake cities and going to Buffalo, where they spent two days seeing Niagara Falls and the points of interest in the city. Miss Antrobus spent several days in Rochester, N. Y., visiting with friends.

One of the most pleasant days of the trip was a seventy mile drive along the Mohawk river. The party proceeded to Boston where they spent ten days, visiting historic places and the towns of Lexington and Concord, seeing the Minute Man Statue, and the street where Paul Revere made his famous ride, also the tavern named in honor of him. They also visited Harvard University.

From here they drove along the Hudson river to New York city, seeing Grant's Tomb, the Statue of Liberty, Brooklyn Bridge and other points of interest in New York. At Atlantic City the party spent two weeks enjoying the ocean bathing.

From there they motored to Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and to Illinois. The drive thru the mountains was especially interesting. While on the trip the party visited 13 states, the District of Columbia and the Dominion of Canada. The party returned to Illinois August 2nd.
